Student participation details regarding the Te Kawau Cross Country not yet available. HOWEVER - Notice in Advance . .

As usual this event will be held at Baines School, on Friday 14 August. Students selected to compete in this event will receive a newsletter in a fortnight, with necessary details. We will endeavor to take all competitive runners. Usually races begin at 10.45am and the day concludes by 2pm. In the meantime students can keep training - hillwork would be ideal.

Te Kawau Cluster Football - Coaches please!

This event will be held on Friday 21 August at Oroua Downs School, and involves a Year 5/6 and Year 7/8 team. I would love to hear from anyone who would like to do some coaching of these teams at lunchtimes over the next few weeks.

Thanks, Francie

3 WAY CONFERENCES

You received information yesterday about 3 way conferences which are happening Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. This is an opportunity to discuss the data sheet you received at the end of last term and what happens next.

Please return the request for a conference as soon as possible to enable Mrs Taylor to organise the timetable

TERM CALENDAR - Please find attached

Reminders:

- ♦ Hot lunches (wrapped in tinfoil and clearly named) available for heating from tomorrow
- ♦ Pizzas, hotdogs and juices available
- ♦ Absences - please ensure you contact us by 9.20am if your child/children are not coming to school.
- 'Regular' attendance is defined as 90% attendance or higher. A child with an average of 90% attendance will miss the equivalent of one year of schooling in ten.
- ♦ Please return all swimming pool keys
- ♦ Students all love playing outside when it is not raining and they occasionally slip over and their clothes get wet. A change of clothes in their bags is a good idea!

Camp Poem

The melted chocolate stained the wrapper,
The chocolate dissolved in my mouth
while the hokey pokey crackled in between my teeth,
I swallowed it fast,
Then carried on with my hike.

The deadly touch brushed along my leg sending all the pain to my head,
I yelped in sorrow, the sting carried on.
I was at the back and no one noticed.

The icy water filled up my shoe
and the squelching felt like bubbles.
The bone aching chill killed my foot,
but the sun cured it.
